ALUMNAE MEETING, 1922

The annual meeting of the Association of Alumnae and Former Students of Sweet Briar College was held June 5, 1922, in the Academic Building at Sweet Briar.

President Margaret McVey opened the meeting with a welcome to the class of 1922. The Alumnae Association was fortunate again this year in being able to receive into its membership such a large and excellent senior class, and Miss McVey ably expressed our pleasure at greeting the new Alumnae.

The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and accepted. As there was no hand-book issued last year (1920), the treasury had not suffered so large a depletion as usual. However, the income of the Association for the year was not as great as could be hoped for. This was due to the fact that an Alumnae play had not been presented for two years and because the life membership list had been of very slow growth.

The Alumnae play was postponed from June to the autumn because of the crowded program of commencement week. The committee, headed by Miss Jane Henderson, had selected both the play and the cast and had given notice to the latter to be present for rehearsals early in senior week. But when the list of events was reviewed it was found impossible to secure a date on which a good attendance could be assured for the production. The same cast will hold good for the fall production, and understudies will insure the performance against the illness or unavailability of the original participants. The play is to be presented both at Sweet Briar and at Amherst.

Mrs. Evans, Chairman of the Tea House Committee, made a report covering the past three years. This report was most acceptable, for the profits and proceeds of the Tea House have always proved a source of much conjecture and wild imagination among the students. For this reason a motion was made and carried that Mrs. Evans present and explain the report before the student body sometime during the fall of 1922.

Membership in the Southern Women's Educational Alliance was explained as valuable to Sweet Briar College and Alumnae Association on the grounds of publicity. The Alliance stands ready to help the Association and its members in any way it can, and it keeps a record of all Southern colleges, their standings and characteristics. The report is published in a bulletin and the publicity accruing therefrom seems worth the $5.00 a year which the Association pays as membership fee.

The President expressed the hope that the various Chapters throughout the United States would show great improvement in activity and in co-operation during the coming year. She urged that the Alumnae look through the rolls of their Chapters and make corrections in names, addresses, etc., and that these corrections be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association. It was further urged that in towns where no Chapter existed that one be organized immediately. In order that the Chapters may feel a greater spirit of co-operation with the whole Association, December 28 was set aside as Sweet Briar Day. Every Chapter is expected to meet that day at 1 P. M.

The problems of shelter for the Alumnae on visits to the college and of the inadequacy of the college gymnasium facilities were combined in the consideration of a plan formulated by Dr. Harley and discussed with President McVey and several other members of the Alumnae. The college cannot very conveniently care for old girls at crowded times like commencement, and outside colleges have refused to play Sweet Briar basketball teams in a gymnasium with a ceiling as low as ours. To cover the two difficulties Dr. Harley has made plans for a "gym-shack," a temporary gymnasium building with a few rooms where Alumnae may stay. The building is to be located near the athletic field, and will cost a comparatively small sum. Sweet Briar may not be able to afford the needed gymnasium for years to come, and neither can she afford to lose her present position in athletics, a position which the low ceiling and bad floor of the old gym very seriously endanger. With the co-operation of the Alumnae Association Dr. Harley feels that she can take care of the situation for a period of some years. The Alumnae voted to give $650.00 toward the "gym-shack" provided the plans meet with certain specifications, among which are heat, plumbing, paint and a good floor.

Miss Ellsworth, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the list of nominees for office for the next two years.

Elections followed, the results being recorded below:

President—Margaret H. McVey, '18.

Vice-President—Alice A. Earley, '22.

Secretary—Mary R. Taylor, '21.
Treasurer—Rosanne Gilmore, '19.
Executive Committee—Selma Brant, Mrs. Peyton
Evans, Mrs. Frederick H. Skinner, '19; Gwendolyn
Barrett, '20.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY R. TAYLOR, Secretary.

THE ANNUAL STATEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

The year 1922 has not seen the Association make any very great strides forward, but we have been growing steadily in many respects. The Treasurer's report showed that we had more than enough money on hand to meet our expenses for the coming year but we would not be able to make any large gift to the chair which we are trying to endow. Our Secretary is still making the same old request for news, names and addresses, so if you are tired of hearing about this, get busy and stop her from talking.

Our active membership has grown from 592 to 675. This, of course, is encouraging, but why can't we double our members? The slow increase made us plan for some united effort to arouse the interest of Sweet Briar girls all over the country.

On December 28, 1922, in fifty different cities and localities Sweet Briar girls will meet together for a luncheon at which they can renew old acquaintances, make new friends, learn news of the Briar, and organize or revive the Chapter. This plan is being worked on thoroughly and given every possible help from the officers of the Association, but it cannot be a success without the co-operation of every individual. Help make Sweet Briar Day, December 28, a tradition! It is up to you, and we are counting on you for Sweet Briar.

The matters which are a great disappointment to the Association are the small attendance of the umnae at Finals and the failure to produce a play during Final week. There were twenty-one Alumnae and former students back in June, but the classes did not make any great effort to come back in large numbers for their reunions. This June the classes of 1913-1918-1922 will hold formal reunions, and we are hoping that they will start the reunion spirit, and that each year we will find large groups from each class returning to pledge anew their loyalty to their Alma Mater.

The Alumnae Play is the cause of a great deal of humiliation to the officers of the Association. In 1921 and in 1922 unavoidable delays have necessitated our breaking the dates which Miss McVey so kindly gave us. I feel that we cannot continue to ask for dates during that crowded week and fail at the last minute to use them. So if the Alumnae really expect to produce a play this Finals I will suggest that we see whether the production of the play is possible before we ask for a part of Final week.

Let me again ask your support of Sweet Briar Day, December 28, 1922. Remember, it all depends on you.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET McVEY, President.

TO THE ALUMNAE AND FORMER STUDENTS OF SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE

Again the opportunity, always so welcome, has come, of sending my greeting to the graduates and former students of Sweet Briar College.

As I write these words on November 1st,, the festival of All Saints, I see from my window the exquisitely beautiful panorama of the woods, hills and mountains which you love so well, garbed in their gorgeous autumn coloring. More and more, the beauty of the out-of-doors, which is the special charm of Sweet Briar, sinks into the souls of its students more and more, it becomes a part of the precious heritage which they carry with them from their college.

All the news that I have to give you is good. The spirit of the College has never been better since we have been at Sweet Briar. The interest in outdoor sports is more vigorous; the earnestness of the academic work is marked; and the interest in the religious work of the college seems to have been definitely stimulated. Sweet Briar has been organized into a regular congregation; it has a Parish Council composed of three members of the Faculty, Dr. Will Walker representing the neighborhood, and six students. Practically all the students in the college have pledged themselves to some form of activity connected with the services or with the Sweet Briar Christian Association.

The four Faculty houses are complete and are occupied by Professor Hugh Worthington, Dr. Albert Salathe, the new head of the Chemistry Department

Dr. Sanford Salyer, the new head of the English Department, and Dr. Ivan McDougale, the head of the Economics Department. The houses are of cement—two gray, with green roofs; two pale buff, with red roofs. They are placed just opposite the old Faculty Row and add much to its attractiveness. We are planning to develop, between the two sets of houses, a pretty commons with shrubbery and a lawn, if one can be made there. The building of these Faculty houses has not only provided far better accommodations for our professors, but by releasing rooms formerly occupied by members of the Faculty in the dormitories, has enabled us to register this year 321 students. A few additional students will probably come in for the second semester, thus raising our numbers for this year to approximately 331. So you see we are growing modestly and steadily all the time.

Today the Tea Room Committee will sign the contracts for the Sweet Briar Inn, to be placed across the road in the rear of Daisy's Garden, the location selected by the Alumnae. The loan for the building has been made possible through personal collateral, as the college could not, of course, be responsible for such an undertaking. The building will have ample space for an attractive tea room and shop, and will also provide accommodations for transient guests, parents of students, and others who may wish to visit the college. I am sure that you will rejoice at this undertaking, as it fills a distinct need at Sweet Briar. When the Inn is completed a prospectus may be obtained by writing to the Chairman of the Committee, Mrs. Peyton Evans, of Amherst, Va.

The outstanding features of our athletic work this year are, first, the securing of a well-trained instructor from the Boston School of Physical Education, for corrective posture and physical re-education work. Miss Carpenter has already accomplished much for the students, and we expect to see a great improvement in physical correctness. The second, and possibly to you the more interesting feature, is the securing by the Athletic Association of an English hockey coach, Miss Cicely Warner, for three weeks this fall. The reports from the hockey team are all encouraging, and the students say that they have gained inestimably from the work of Miss Warner. The team is enthusiastic and hopes to win all the intercollegiate games this year.

Once more the college finds itself at another point of vantage. We must seize our opportunities. With the co-operation of all the students and of our friends a fine future is assured us; but again I would impress upon you that no further advance is possible without another building for class rooms and administration. Will not the local Chapters take this matter under advisement and strain every nerve to secure contributions for such a building?

Faithfully yours,

EMILIE WATTS McVEA.

FINALS, 1922

They came early and they stayed late, so they must have had a good time. The only trouble was that there weren't enough of them. You Alumnae who haven't been back for commencement lately don't realize what a mob is required to intimidate the colossal senior classes Sweet Briar is turning out these days. The self-assurance of the modern college girl stands her in good stead when she is called out to the Alumnae bon-fire, the old girls vainly hoping to impress her with their dignity and cleverness. You can't trick a B A, and sometimes it becomes difficult to harrass sub-B A's, particularly when there are thirty-odd on a bunch.

There were only about fifteen old girls on hand this year, but they carried on bravely enough.

Commencement week was so full that there was no room for an Alumnae play, so the campus has that to look forward to this fall. "Tea for Three" had been selected and the cast chosen, and the Association is anticipating no difficulty in presenting the piece at some time during the fall term.

Lake Day was early on the program, being held Friday afternoon. One or two of the outdoor commencement features were seriously threatened with rain. However, Lake Day came through safely. The boat and canoe races were fast and close, and the spectators had a plenty of thrills from them. Swimming and diving events are always good at Sweet Briar, and one can always count on a new constellation of stars in the freshman class.

Friday evening the Sweet Briar Chapter of the A. A. U. W. entertained at a picnic supper for the senior class and for the Alumnae who have had their college interest sufficient at heart to seek membership in the American Association of University Women. The Sweet Briar branch of the Association is only so big, but it is doing great things. The particular work they have in view is the improvement of Amherst County, socially, educationally and as a natural sequence, financially. It does not seem right that so important an educational center as Sweet Briar should leave little or no impression on the community in which it is situated. Last spring the college was hostess for Amherst Day. Such a thing never happened before in the history of the county. Four hundred men, women and children came from all around the county and picniced at Sweet Briar. It rained, but it didn't hurt the party. There were speeches and essays and poems and music. Anne Lewis, whose father was the college chaplain for some years, won the prize for the best original poem. Altogether the day was a huge success, and it is expected that in 1923 the entire county will be on hand. We also learned that the Coolwell School is improving steadily under the same interested supervision, and that a traveling library has been instituted which will reach every school in the county at some time during the year.

Saturday afternoon the Seniors gave the time-honored garden party to the college and its guests. The rose garden was gay with talk and laughter, and the cool refreshments were a welcome boon. Almost before the garden party was over the Kawanis Club of Lynchburg arrived for supper and the play. It seemed like May Day to see such a lot of men making themselves at home on the campus.

The play, "Told in a Chinese Garden," was exceptionally colorful and charming. It was directed by Mr. Robert Dempster, who produced "Prunella" so successfully in 1921. The leads were played by Elsie Wood and Virginia Lewis with Hilda Dreyfus handling the role of the despicable villain with the long finger-nails. Particularly noteworthy was the Oriental atmosphere of the play. The music, the vivid beauty of setting and properties, and the very good dancing all combined to produce a witching Eastern background against which the drama moved. It is a delight to realize the standard to which Sweet Briar dramatics have attained.

The Baccalaureate Sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Tucker from the University of Virginia, and there was special music. A new feature of the service was an offering taken to begin a Chapel fund for Sweet Briar. It is hoped that this fund will be of rapid growth since it will mean a new college chapel at an earlier date than could otherwise be expected.

Step singing Sunday evening had a very close call. Just after supper the seniors marched gravely out in their caps and gowns, singing their class song, and took their place on the Refectory steps. Every one sang lustily and the Alumnae strove mightily when their time came. There were the expected emotional chokes in spots, but gee, it gives you a funny feeling to hear another bunch singing a song which you somehow could not think of as belonging to any class but yours! The ceremonies were hardly over when the rain came over the hill from the dairy and fairly swamped the place. This, of course, cut out the Vesper Service in the Boxwood Circle.

Monday morning at 10 o'clock the Alumnae meeting was held in Room 22, Academic. From the pep and enthusiasm displayed one would hardly have recognized it as a sober business occasion. But turn back and read the minutes and see if we didn't get something done.

Class Day gets more clever every year, I do believe. That is something to say of the present college generation, because there is an always growing list of seniors to be taken off and an ever increasing number of pet peeves to avoid duplication at the grave scene. This year Class Day was held in the Boxwood Circle instead of the rose garden, and the grave was dug just opposite the big oak.

Monday night Miss McVea's niece, Emily Rose Knox, gave a recital. Miss Knox, who has been studying in Europe the past few years, and who has twice won the scholarship at Fontainebleau, is a violinist of remarkable ability, and is to make her debut on the concert stage in New York this winter. Sweet Briar has rarely enjoyed a more beautiful musical evening, and we should indeed be proud to have had the pleasure of hearing Miss Knox and of being able to claim her as a kinswoman of our President.

It would hardly do to go too much into detail over the bon-fire incident. Some enterprizing undergraduate might get hold of a booklet and find out too many Alumnae secrets—not that the entire college wasn't hanging out of the windows "for to admire and for to see" what the Alums would do to the Seniors. They couldn't see but so much because the bon-fire was rather puny. There had been so much rain that dry brush was scarce and logs won't burn without more encouragement than we could squeeze out of the night lanterns on the fire-escapes. And then, too, you do need at least one Alum to a Senior to have the proper display of discipline. Anyway, we didn't get any of these about-to-be-graduates so worked up that they could not march in the academic procession next morning. They were all there.

The Hon. Andrew J. Montague made the commencement address, and the exercises throughout were as impressive as was befitting so large a graduating class. One wears out one's hands clapping for so many, but the show is well worth the price. Come and see 1923 get their diplomas and be proud that "we are from Sweet Briar!"

REUNIONS!

"Come pals of '913!" You are the oldest class up for reunion this year, and every one is looking forward to seeing you at the Briar in all the strength of your eleven members. You are widely scattered, but you have not forgotten Sweet Briar any more than Sweet Briar has forgotten you.

Nineteen hundred and eighteen has not been out quite so long, and consequently should not have traveled as far away as 1913. So, do try to get back to college for your five-year reunion.

Nineteen hundred and twenty-two will simply have to be on hand to show everybody what one year out of college can do to a person.

Everybody come. Don't stand back just because your class isn't scheduled for a formal reunion. You may find enough girls from your own class to outnumber the reuning ones. It sometimes happens. With the Sweet Briar Inn to house us and all the excitement that commencement week holds out for us, it doesn't seem possible to resist the Sweet Briar call.

"Obey that impulse!"

ALUMNAE SONG

Tune—"Field Artillery March"

When the end of the year
And commencement time are here
Then the Alumnae come rolling along.
We leave all else behind
For the crowd we know we'll find,
And to Sweet Briar come rollong along!
We can't forget our good old college days,
We can't leave Sweet Briar very long,
So when things get gay
You will hear the people say,
The Alumnae'll be rolling along!"
We have all had our day
And our hair is turning gray,
But we still keep on rolling along!
We can't dance in the style,
*And our skirts hike up a mile,
But we still keep on rolling along!
We're not spring chicks and we date from nineteen-six,
Our cracked old throats can hardly sing this song,
But, when things get gay
You will hear the people say,
The Alumnae'll come rolling along!
*Line reads as above or—"Skirts hang down a mile." Depends on fashion, don't-you-know.

STRAIGHT FROM SWEET BRIAR

The Athletic Association has realized an age-old ambition—Lake Day for the college year 1922-23 was held in the fall. You certainly can trust the student body to see things done properly. They picked the day and night of the October full moon, and made the most of it. The canoe and boat races were held in the afternoon, and some of the swimming events were run off then. At night when the moon rolled up over the hills, it found the boat-house and raft hung with Chinese lanterns and four floats on the lake—one for each class. There were fireworks across the lake and singing to the accompaniment of a violin. More swimming was on the program, and fancy diving had an important place. The Lake Day cup was won by Thomasine Rose, '24, of Pittsburgh.

Sweet Briar is no longer connected with the National Y. W. C. A., but has formed a Sweet Briar Christians Association. This plan will probably work much better than the old one, since there will not be so many outside connections to keep up and more time can be devoted to meeting the needs of the girls on the campus.

The hockey team always holds our interest. Sweet Briar won its game with Lynchburg College, 4 to 1. The good old team meets Westhampton in Richmond on November 28, and then goes on to play Bryn Mawr! Would you believe it? This is the first time Southern and Northern colleges have played each other in hockey, and the mile-stone in Sweet Briar's Athletic history is due largely to the efforts of Misses Elizabeth Taylor and Lydia Purcell. It seems that our team is worth keeping track of.

How old does this make you feel? Polly Carey Dew entered Sweet Briar this fall as a freshman.

Officers at Sweet Briar this year are:

President of S. G. A., Virginia Stanberry, '23.

President of S. B. C. A., Ada Taylor, '23.

President of S. B. A. A., Elizabeth Taylor, '23.

President of Senior Class, Lydia Purcell, '23.

Editor of the Briar Patch, Marian Swanell, '24.

Editor of the Magazine, Martha Lobinger, '24.

Marjorie Milligan, originally of the class of '22, knows what it means to be a Sweet Briar graduate. She returned to college this fall and will receive her B. A. in June.

There seems to be a fondness for Europe among the members of the faculty at Sweet Briar. During the summer of 1922 at least four of them sailed across the "big pond."

Dr. Harley chaperoned a party taking a Northern trip by Iceland and Scandanavia, then down onto the continent.

Mlle. Antoinette Malet spent the summer in France.

Mr. Robert Dempster, the dramatic coach, sailed just after commencement for a European trip. He was particularly interested in visiting Oberamagan to see the Passion Play.

Miss Bartlett went over to study in Paris. She expected while there to attend the meeting of the International Association of University Women. Dr. McVea found it impossible to attend this meeting for which she had been appointed as one of the five delegates from the United States. While Miss Bartlett did not attend the conference in the capacity of a delegate, still it is pleasant to know that Sweet Briar had some part in this great educational gathering.

SWEET BRIAR DAY

Mention of this important event will be found in two other places in the hand-book, so there is no need to make this press notice very long. The date set for Sweet Briar Day is December 28, 1922. The hour will be optional, but we strongly recommend 1 P. M. We feel that the knowledge that Sweet Briar girls all over the United States are meeting together on the same day at the same hour should engender in the Association at large a spirit of cooperation which up to this time has been a regrettedly negative quantity.

What Sweet Briar Day is will depend on you. Chairmen have been appointed for the fifty largest Sweet Briar centers, and the names of these chairmen are listed below. If the person in charge of Sweet Briar Day in your locality fails to communicate with you, don't let her get away with her laziness. You communicate with her. When your chairman asks you for your advice and assistance in putting across the luncheon, or whatever activity you undertake for the day, give of your time and energy just as far as you are able. Remember it is for Sweet Briar, and your best can never be too good for your Alma Mater.

NEWS

You will see that most of the personals this year consist of marriage announcements. Now we know that flocks of Sweet Briar girls are doing things equally as interesting as getting things that certainly are far more unique. For instance, we have heard that there is a Sweet Briar Tea Room at East Jordan, Mich., but we have not the least idea as to who it is that conducts this worthy hash-house. The desk of the Association Secretary would feel far less as if it belonged to the Bureau of Vital Statistics if occasionally some fragment of occupational or pilgrimage news reposed thereon side by side with a wedding announcement.

I hope to send the 1923 hand-book to press sometime during next summer, and I would greatly appreciate it if the various wise and knowing members of the Association would collect their choice morsels of information and send them to me during the spring. Not that they won't be acceptable at any time, but we do want to be as up-to-date as possible. Correcter Chapter rolls would also please me mightily.

Mail will reach me at 1006 Floyd Ave., Richmond, Va. Thank you so much. MARY R. TAYLOR,

35

Secretary.
